

EMPLOYMENT SERVICES BUSINESS WORKSHEET

Check one of the following statements which best describes your employment services business (Check One Only):
	The employment services business does not pay the job seeker; the job seeker is paid by the employer.
	The employment services business pays the jobseeker.
	The employment services business provides job counseling services intended to support the job seekers ability to find employment.
f you checked 'A', you may apply for the Employer-Paid Personnel Service .  f you checked 'B', you may apply for the Employment Agency and provide the following supporting documentation:
f you	checked 'B' , you may apply for the Employment Agency and provide the following
f you suppo	checked 'B', you may apply for the Employment Agency and provide the following orting documentation:  Contract
f you suppo	checked 'B', you may apply for the Employment Agency and provide the following orting documentation:  Contract  Employment Service Bond
f you suppo	checked 'B', you may apply for the Employment Agency and provide the following orting documentation:  Contract
f you suppo	checked 'B', you may apply for the Employment Agency and provide the following orting documentation:  Contract  Employment Service Bond
f you support	checked 'B', you may apply for the Employment Agency and provide the following orting documentation:  Contract Employment Service Bond Fee Schedule  checked 'C', you may apply for the Employment Counseling Service and provide llowing supporting documentation:  Contract
f you support	checked 'B', you may apply for the Employment Agency and provide the following orting documentation:  Contract Employment Service Bond Fee Schedule  checked 'C', you may apply for the Employment Counseling Service and provide llowing supporting documentation:  Contract Employment Service Bond
f you support	checked 'B', you may apply for the Employment Agency and provide the following orting documentation:  Contract Employment Service Bond Fee Schedule  checked 'C', you may apply for the Employment Counseling Service and provide llowing supporting documentation:  Contract